

Global Norm Evolution and the Responsibility to Protect

SECOND PROJECT WORKSHOP
FRANKFURT, 26-27 SEPTEMBER 2013

organized jointly by
Peace Research Institute Frankfurt/PRIF
and Global Public Policy Institute Berlin/GPPi

Goals

---

- Review and discuss draft actor case studies
- Agree on a common research framework for the interaction case studies
- Refine the theoretical basis of the research project

Venue

---

Goethe University Frankfurt
Westend Compound
Building “Normative Orders” on the corner of Lübecker Str / Hansaallee, see map on p. 5

Agenda

---

Day 1: Thursday, 26 September

- 09.00      Opening (Christopher Daase, Julian Junk)
- 09.10      Goals and agenda for the workshop (Philipp Rotmann)
- 09.30      Session I: The actor case studies
- Review of the actor study framework (Gerrit Kurtz)
- 09.45      Reviewing the draft chapters (1)
- Buyer's remorse? South Africa's entanglement with the responsibility to protect,<sup>1</sup>
by Harry Verhoeven, C.S.R. Murthy and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira
Presenter: Julian Junk (PRIF)
External Discussant: Simone Claar (Goethe-University Frankfurt)
(Discussion moderated by Philipp Rotmann)

---

<sup>1</sup> This and the following are tentative early working titles.

10.30

Coffee break

10.45

The actor case studies: Reviewing the draft chapters (2)

- From distance to reform: Brazil and the Responsibility to Protect,
by Oliver Stuenkel and Marcos Tourinho
Presenter: Thorsten Benner (GPPi)
External Discussant: Gregor Hofmann (PRIF)
- Steward of sovereignty? China and the global debate about a responsibility to protect,
by Zhang Haibin and Liu Tiewa
Presenter: Oliver Stuenkel (FGV)
External Discussant: Tim Ruehlig (Goethe-University Frankfurt)
- Supporting from Behind – The US R2P Policy between International Reluctance and Domestic Advances, by Julian Junk and Christopher Daase
Presenter: Liu Tiewa
External Discussant: Carolin Anthes (PRIF)

(Discussion moderated by Sarah Brockmeier, GPPi)

13.00

Lunch (at the university cafeteria – “Mensa”)

14.00

The actor case studies: Reviewing the draft chapters (3)

- The long shadow of war: disunited Europe and a responsibility to protect,
by Sarah Brockmeier, Gerrit Kurtz and Julian Junk
Presenter: Marcos Tourinho (FGV)
External Discussant: Matthias Dembinski (PRIF)
- Sovereignty as sanctity? India and the responsibility to protect,
by J. Madhan Mohan and Gerrit Kurtz
Presenter: Ricardo Soares de Oliveira (Oxford University)
External Discussant: Gregor Hofmann (PRIF)

(Discussion moderated by Harry Verhoeven, Oxford University)

15.30

Coffee break

16.00

The actor case studies: Reviewing the draft chapters (4)

- “The dictatorship of law”: a background to Russia’s position on Responsibility to Protect, by Xymena Kurowska and Erna Burai
Presenter: C.S.R. Murthy
External Discussant: Alexander Graef (Free University Berlin)

(Discussion moderated by Julian Junk)

- 16.45      Lessons learned after the first phase of “Global Norms and R2P”
Discussion and feedback on the first 10 months of the project
- 17.30      Brief plenary roundup & feedback on the day (Philipp Rotmann)
- 18.00      Short break
- 18.15      Presentation and discussion
Second Image Revisited: Comparative Capitalism and Emerging Powers' Preferences on the Evolution of Global Economic Norms
Andreas Nölke (Professor for Political Science, University of Frankfurt)
- 19:30      Buffet dinner

Day 2: Friday, 27 September

- 09.00      Session II: Key conceptual questions
(How) do contestation and evolution help us deal with non-linearity and openendedness?
  - Christopher Daase (PRIF/Goethe-University Frankfurt)
  - Nicole Deitelhoff (PRIF/Goethe-University Frankfurt)
  - Philipp Rotmann/Gerrit Kurtz (GPPi)(Discussion moderated by Thorsten Benner)
- 10.45      Coffee break
- 11.00      Session III: Interaction analysis
How do we observe and explain norm evolution in our case studies?
(Discussion moderated by Thorsten Benner/Philipp Rotmann TBC)
- 13.00      Lunch (at the university cafeteria – “Mensa”)

- 14.00      Session IV: Interaction cases – what do we know already about the empirics?
Exchange of first findings, empirical leads and open questions on interaction case studies.
(Moderated by Mengsu Chang, Yale University TBC)
- 15.15      Coffee break
- 15.30      Session V: Planning logistics/scheduling for year two Research tandems meet for work planning for year 2 (travel schedules etc)
- 16.30      Wrap up and next steps (Philipp Rotmann)
- 17.00      End of the workshop