Johanna-Quandt-Scholarship for participation at
European Alpbach Forum from 14. - 30. August 2019

The European Forum Alpbach is an interdisciplinary platform for science, politics, business and culture. Every year, 700 students from about 90 nationalities participate in the European Forum Alpbach. Join smart minds from around the world in a charming Alpine village, immersing yourself in an environment bursting with novel ideas, new ways of thinking and opportunities for making great contacts.

For the third time the Goethe University sponsors ten Johanna-Quandt-Scholarships for the attendance at the European Forum Alpbach 2019. The scholarship covers the participation fee (1,400 €) for the whole duration of the event, as well as expenses for accommodation, subsistence and travel. Accommodation will be provided in shared rooms.

Next to several lectures and workshops in Alpbach, there will further be a special framework programme for Johanna-Quandt-Scholarship holders organized by the Goethe University.

Who can apply?
- Students and Doctoral Candidates from the Goethe University from all academic disciplines up to the age of 30.
- International students are highly encouraged to apply.

What do we expect?
- Interest in this year’s general topic of the European Alpbach Forum „Liberty & Security“
- Very good English Skills (minimum B2-Level)
- An open, critical and tolerant mindset, that is open for new perspectives
- Active participation at the seminars, lectures and workshops at the European Alpbach Forum
- Attendance at the programme before, during and after the European Alpbach Forum organized by the Goethe University

How to apply and required documents?
- Completly filled out application form
- Curriculum Vitae (max. 1 page)
  Note: CV should display your education, practical experience and extra-curricular activities
Motivational Statement in Englisch
(max. 1,800 characters incl. spaces)
Note: The Motivational Statement should reflect your thoughts and ideas on this year’s topic „Liberty & Security“. Further it should include your perspective on European Integration as well as your view on the values of the European Alpbach Forum.

Transcript of Records or Bachelor-/Master Degree certificate

Evidence of your English proficiency (minimum B2-level) for non-native speakers
Note: Evidence that you have reached European level B2, e.g. a confirmation by your school, employer or a university professor, explicitly stating that you have reached B2 or an equivalent to B2. If the document fails to proof that you have reached B2, we will not be able to consider it. We also accept language certificates such as TOEFL or IELTS

When to apply?

Applications can be sent in from 08. – 28. April 2019 to stipendien@uni-frankfurt.de
Letters of acceptance and refusal will be sent out by the end of May 2019

Is there another possibility to participate at the European Alpbach Forum?

The European Alpbach Forum organizes its own scholarship programme, where you can apply.
For more details go to www.alpbach.org

Do you want to know more about the Johanna-Quandt-Scholarship?

For more details visit http://tinygu.de/EFA2019

Do you have any questions?

Please contact us:

Ms Sybille Blöcker
Goethe-University
Studien-Service-Center
E-Mail: stipendien@uni-frankfurt.de
Webseite: www.stipendien.uni-frankfurt.de