Accommodation for doctoral candidates in Frankfurt

The following brochure should make your quest for affordable accommodation in Frankfurt easier.

Please note that the Goethe Welcome Centre (GWC) is not able to provide any accommodation and there are no university guest apartments or guest houses available for PhD students. However, we are constantly checking all possibilities on the accommodation market in Frankfurt in order to provide you with a most complete picture of the situation here.

The GWC will be pleased to provide you with all necessary information for a successful search for a suitable accommodation in Frankfurt. It is our goal to make you feel comfortable in Frankfurt and to assure that you have a fruitful and successful stay at the Goethe-University. Knowing that the quest for accommodation may prove to be rather demanding and in order to facilitate your personal quest we would like to inform you about some issues and facts related to accommodation in Frankfurt.

Please be aware that it might be quite challenging to find an accommodation in Frankfurt and the prices are very high as Frankfurt is an attractive place for living, being an economically very busy city. Do consider apartments in Frankfurt’s surrounding as well.

Basically, there are two possibilities to find a place to stay in Frankfurt:

1. There is a private accommodation market in Frankfurt. However, for three reasons it might be difficult to be successful on the private accommodation market:

   a. Landlords mostly will not rent out apartments to someone they have not seen in person, i.e. when you are not in Frankfurt, it is very difficult to be chosen, especially as there are generally more than 50 people that react to interesting accommodation offers.

   b. Landlords do not tend to rent apartments for only a couple of months: they are looking for someone who intends to rent an apartment on a long term basis.

   c. Most apartments offered on the private accommodation market are not furnished.

2. There is a large variety of hotels and inns available in Frankfurt. The prices vary between 80 and 300€ per night. You can book some of them on a long term basis for cheaper rates.

Please be aware that it may be even more difficult to find an accommodation in Frankfurt when looking for more than a single apartment and rental costs in Frankfurt are rather high compared to other cities in Hessen. In Germany, it is quite common that an average of 40% to 50% of the net salary is spent on accommodation. Generally, you should calculate around 500€ - 700€ for a single flat, 600€ - 950€ for a two room flat and 750€ - 1.400€ for a three room flat.
Please be aware that it is generally not possible to cancel a reservation or only under very specific conditions. Therefore, you are fully responsible for expenses related to reservations even if you finally decide not to come to Frankfurt or to arrive later.

1. The rental market

Entering the private rental market is one possibility for the apartment search.

Furthermore, rental advertisements can be found and placed in the internet or in the real estate section of daily newspapers such as the „Frankfurter Rundschau“ (www.fr-online.de) or „Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung“ (www.faz.net). You could for example post your own advertisement on the websites mentioned above or in local newspapers and on notice boards. Furthermore, you can enlist the help of a real estate agency to find accommodation.

2. Information on rental contracts

Before moving into an apartment you usually set up a rental lease with your future landlord. By signing it you enter into a legally binding agreement and should therefore read it carefully before signing, including the fine print. Purely verbal rental agreements are rather uncommon in Germany.

The lease should include the following information: basic monthly rental charge not including monthly additional costs such as garbage removal, water, taxes and, in some cases, heating and hot water (Kaltmiete), monthly additional costs (Nebenkosten), starting date and duration of the rental period (in the case of fixed-term leases), term of notice for open-ended contracts (usually 3 months), the tenant’s rights of use (basement, common areas, garden etc.), possible obligatory renovations before moving out (professional carpet cleaning, painting etc). Any existing deficiencies in the flat should also be noted so that you will not be held responsible when moving out. According to German legislation, it is permissible to keep small pets (guinea pigs, caged birds, rabbits and hamsters), cats or dogs, you should discuss it with your landlord in advance.

Some landlords will agree to terminate the tenancy before the term of notice runs out if you are able to provide a new tenant in time. If anything in your lease strikes you as strange or unusual, do not hesitate to consult the Goethe Welcome Centre.

Security Deposit

It is common in Germany for a landlord to ask for 1 or 2 months’ rent as a security deposit. The money is put in a savings account for you and is paid back in full when you move out unless you have caused any damage in the apartment or have not fully paid your rent. The maximum permissible deposit is three months rent.

Before moving in you usually fix an appointment with your landlord to receive the keys.
