„Surveying Oman – Methods of Archaeological Exploration in Eastern Arabia“

Friday, 5th November
13:30h Welcome

13:45h Maria Pia Maiorano & Vincent Charpentier
Ten years of “Arabian Seashore” project: how the systematic investigation of central-southern coastal Oman changed the paradigm of Arabian Neolithic

14:15h Michael J. Harrower, Joseph W. Lehner, Ioana A. Dumitru, Smiti Nathan, Paige Paulsen (online)
Method and Theory in Archaeological Survey of Oman

14:45h Roman Garba
Challenges in trilith monument identification: remote sensing vision vs. ground reality

15:15h coffee

15:45h Guillaume Gernez (online)
Surveys in Oman, from possibilities to unexpected: experience from Adam and Bisya

16:15h Tara Beuzen-Waller
Contribution of geomorphology and remote sensing in archaeological surveys: case study from the southern piedmont of the Hajar Mountains (Oman)

16:45h Stephanie Döpper
From near to far: The Al-Mudhaybi Regional Survey

17:15h Irini Biezeveld
The abandoned villages of Central Oman: surveying the Late Islamic landscape of the Al-Mudhaybi region

18:30h dinner

Saturday, 6th November
9:30 h Taichi Kuronuma, Takehiro Miki & Yasuhisa Kondo (online)
Archaeological surveys of canyon and floodplains in the Tanūf district, Central Oman: Methodology and applications

10:00h William Deadman (online)
Mapping and analysing the regional distribution of Hafit tombs across the northern Oman Peninsula
10:30 h  Derek Kennet (online)
Prehistoric and historical settlement patterns in Oman: lessons from the Rustaq Batinah Archaeological Survey

11:00h  coffee

11:30h  Bleda Düring
Beyond Dots with Dates: A Landscape Approach to the Sohar Hinterlands

12:00h  Tatiana Valente, Fernando Contreras, Adrián Fernández, Ahmed Mahmud, Mansour Boraik Radwan Karim, Mahra Saif Al Mansoori & Hassan Mohammed Zein
The Jebel al Yamh and Hatta Valley Survey (Dubai, UAE): GIS tools applied to archaeological research and heritage protection

12:30h  lunch