Sat., 29.01.2022 Guided Tour New Jewish Museum

© Norbert Miguletz/Jüdisches Museum Frankfurt

Frankfurt's Jewish history from 1800 to the present is varied and dynamic. It opens windows on the achievements of emancipation and the dawn of modernity. At the same time, it shows how closely the Enlightenment and modernisation are linked with hostility towards Jews, right up to the Shoah. Get to know the new Jewish Museum and its permanent exhibition on three floors of the Rothschild Palais during the highlight tour.

The guided tour gives an overview of the themes of the exhibition "Wir sind Jetzt. Jewish Frankfurt from the Enlightenment to the Present". It presents highlights of the exhibition and encourages further exploration.

The guided tour will take place on January 29, 2022 at 1.00 pm and will last 90 minutes. Please regard, that the 2G+ rule applies to visits to the museum (vaccinated/healed + negative test or vaccinated/healed + booster vaccination). If you are interested in participating, please register with an e-mail to events_gwc@uni-frankfurt.de by 23.01.2021 .

Service and entrance fee: 5.00 €
