

Goethe University Frankfurt am Main invites applications for the position of

Professor (W2 with tenure track) of Medieval History at the Faculty of Philosophy and History. This civil servant or public employee position will start 01. October 2022.

This is a tenure-track position for an initial six-year term. If tenure is approved at the end of the term, the position will be made permanent and promotion to the rank of Distinguished Professor (W3) will be granted.

The successful candidate will represent the subject in research and teaching and will be expected to participate in collaborative research projects, especially the research initiative Religious Dynamics. The professorship is also involved in teacher training; experience and concepts for teaching subject content in schools are welcome.

The formal hiring requirements are defined in the Hessian Higher Education Act (Hessisches Hochschulgesetz).

Goethe University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to diversity and inclusion. In particular, we are welcoming applications by qualified women and people with a migrant background. At Goethe University, a special emphasis is placed on creating and sustaining a family-friendly work and research environment. Where applicants are otherwise equally qualified, preference is given to candidates with disabilities or equivalent. The same applies to women in fields in which they are under-represented.

To apply, please send a CV, a list of publications, an overview of your research and teaching activities as well as transcripts and course evaluations as a single PDF document by 09.03.2022 to dekanat08@em.uni-frankfurt.de (subject line: „Professur Mittelalterliche Geschichte“). If you have any questions, please contact the Dean's Office at dekanat08@em.uni-frankfurt.de.
