Interested in Becoming a Language Assistant in England? Apply for the TA Programme!

Goethe-University Frankfurt
Department of English and American Studies (IEAS)
TEFL Theory and Methodology

The Teaching Assistant Programme

For many years, the IEAS has had a successful cooperation with several public schools in various parts of England. For the next academic year 2023/24, we are looking for 4 TEFL students to become teaching assistants at these partner schools:

- Badminton School, Bristol
- Christ's Hospital, Horsham
- Giggleswick School, North Yorkshire
- St. Paul's School, London
- Please note that due to Brexit a visa is required, Giggleswick school will organize this directly, for the other schools an extra application via the PAD after our interview is required. Information about this will be given to successful candidates.

You can find more information on the schools and your work there on our website!

First Impressions

The TA Programme – Application & Important Dates

Applications can be handed in once a year until the beginning of December for the next academic year. Next application deadline: 14th November 2022

Your application has to be in English (since it will be sent to the schools as well) and has to include the following parts:

- CV
- Letter of Motivation (covering letter)
- Transcript of attended courses
- English Teacher (E-)Portfolio (Note: you can still hand in your old portfolio this year)
- Two academic references (at least one by a university lecturer)

You can find more information on the TA poster & flyer, which are available online, too:
