

Information for office hours

Please sign up for Prof. Julian Garritzmann's office hour by mail to his secretary Andrea Stork (a.stork@soz.uni-frankfurt.de). You can sign up until the day before the office hour at 9.00 am. Afterwards the list will be closed. Please stick to the office hour times, there's no consultation outside the office hours.

During lecture times, office hours take place on a weekly basis; but much less often during lecture-free times. Therefore, please check the website for available dates. Please consider that you have to sign in for the office hour in due time, as these might be more crowded during some parts of the year.

If you want to discuss any written material during the office hour (e.g., outlines for papers or theses, etc.), please send these to garritzmann@soz.uni-frankfurt.de until the day before the office hour at 9.00 am. Unfortunately, for reasons of time and fairness to other students, I cannot read any longer material during the office hour.

If you have any questions related to formalities for exams or other Prüfungen, please consult the websites (where you find a lot of information) as well as the Prüfungsamt and the Studienberatung.
